Heber Family Holds Record For Old Age

Open house will be held Sunday, March 10th at the home of J. Fred Giles in honor of his mother, Sarah Daybell Giles, who will be 90 years old. She was born in England, March 11, 1850. Mrs. Giles joined the church and came to Utah when she was 14 years old. The family settled at Charleston, where she lived until she was married to George T. Giles on January 28, 1867. She was the mother of 13 children, six sons are still living. She has 59 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Giles enjoys fairly good health and also has a wonderful memory. She enjoys telling stories and singing songs of the early days. Her husband preceded her in death 30 years ago, and she came here to live with her sisters, Elizabeth Giles and Susan Carlile, who were also widows. She lived there until last October, when she moved to the home of her son, J. Fred Giles, who lives on the corner, where she was married 74 years ago.

Susan Carlile died seven years ago at the age of 84. Elizabeth died December 19, 1939, at the age of 84. She has one brother living who is Patriarch William Daybell, who is 82 years old. Relatives and friends are invited to call and wish her a happy birthday Sunday, March 10th from 2 to 7 p. m.
